PRIDE Academy Charter School

Frequently Asked Questions

What is PRIDE Academy Charter School?

PRIDE Academy is a charter school dedicated to serving middle school students in the communities of East Orange, Orange, and Newark, New Jersey.

What is a charter school?

New Jersey's charter schools are free public schools that are open to all children and typically offer their students more individualized attention, longer school days, longer school years, and innovative programs with substantially less funding than other public schools.

What is PRIDE Academy's mission?

"PRIDE Academy Charter School endeavors to ignite success in middle school students of all abilities through a curriculum rooted in the values of peace, respect, integrity, determination, and empathy. By establishing a community dedicated to academic achievement, mastery of fundamental skills, positive leadership, and active service, PRIDE Academy Charter School strives to embolden its students to harness their own power to shape their future and the world."

What are the school's core values?

PRIDE Academy Charter School's community is built upon a commitment from all school members—teachers, administrators, student and parents---to live the core values of peace, respect, integrity, determination, and empathy.

What distinguishes PRIDE Academy Charter School?

PRIDE Academy Charter School is set apart by its 5 core components:

- A fully integrated curriculum dedicated to academic rigor
- A school-wide focus on the development of higher order thinking skills through the PACS Learning Cycle, an original pedagogical approach to strengthen higher order thinking.
- A commitment to accountability and action
- A dedication to professional growth
- A respect for the interconnectedness of community

Who are the PRIDE Academy Charter School Founders?

PRIDE Academy Charter School was designed by a group of educational and parent leaders with over 50 years collective school experience in Newark and East Orange New Jersey.

When did PRIDE Academy open?

PRIDE Academy Charter School opened its doors to students in September 2008.

What grade levels does PRIDE Academy teach?

PRIDE Academy Charter School serves students in grades 5-8. The entire student body numbers 240, with 3 classes of 20 students per each grade.

How does PRIDE Academy select its students?

PRIDE Academy Charter School conducts a lottery in front of interested parents and observers to determine who will be admitted, pursuant with N.J.S.A. 36A-8(a). All applicants are entered into the lottery. Names are drawn from a lottery drum until all spaces are filled and continues to establish the waiting list. Students are placed on the waiting list in the order their names are drawn. After a class is filled, the order of the waiting list is established by continuing to draw names in a public lottery.
